Headline:
Turning colder, with some snow overnight. Fine and frosty Tuesday.

This Evening and Tonight:
Damp, breezy conditions gradually giving way to some sleet and snow later in the night, mainly on hills. Clearer and colder by dawn, with icy patches possible and with a widespread sharp frost developing, especially near snow cover. Minimum temperature -5 deg C (23 deg F).

Tuesday:
Soon becoming fine, with frost and icy patches only very gradually thawing in the winter sunshine. Winds remaining light throughout. Maximum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Wednesday starting cold and crisp, but rain edging eastwards. This rain turning to snow, mainly on hills, before easing through Thursday. Friday then drier, with a risk of freezing fog.
